

FLE :

Articles and prepositions. Personal and relative pronouns. Expressions of time, cause, consequence, purpose, condition, opposition. Direct and indirect speech. Verbal forms, uses and concordance of tenses and modes (imperative, indicative, conditional and subjunctive).

Vocabulary (synonymy, antonymy, word families).

Language registers: sustained language and expressions of everyday language.

Written expression: syntax exercises, sentence constructions/structures.

Written comprehension: study of texts Oral comprehension: audio and video documents

Teachers : Marylène MEUNIER

FRENCH CULTURE :

This course is about discovering French culture in the broadest sense. The stereotypes usually associated with France and the French language will be addressed in a playful way, as well as the theme of the evolution of French society in the current context. French regionalism and more precisely the Rhône-Alpes- Auvergne region in order to discover its particularities and cultural richness. The last part of the course will be entirely dedicated to Lyon which will aim to provide students with practical information that can be useful throughout their stay in France.

Teacher : Sébastien SOUVY